days per week. The program also partners with another nonprofit to provide on-site and community based therapeutic services to children and families in need.

The kids-a-part program aims to reduce the traumatic impact experienced by children during a mother's incarceration. The program uses best practices that promote safe and healthy contact during parental incarceration; ensures necessary supports are in place for the family; and improves the capacity for our systems to meet with these families. The program includes services in the women's facility, as well as community-based supports for caregivers and children. Lund provides training, education, and consultation about the impact of parental incarceration and best practices for supporting children and families to Vermont Department of Corrections staff, schools, community-based agencies, and other groups to enhance community-wide understanding of the issue.

Supervised Visitation: Sometimes, children and families need a safe and neutral setting to maintain contact with a non-custodial parent to support safe exchange between caretakers.
